Kingston's Shirt Workers Will Get 20 Per Cent Boost

Manhattan and Jacobson Plants Are Affected, Hillman Says in Release

Announcement is made that about 450 workers at the plants of the Manhattan Shirt Co. and Jacobson & Sons, Kingston-shirt manufacturers, will receive a raise of 20 per cent in pay as the result of a conference held at Atlantic City, December 8 and 9, between representatives of shirt manufacturers in the United States and officials of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America (C.I.O.) representing 45,000 workers.

Announcement to this effect was made Sunday by Sidney Hillman, president of the Union and Jacob S. Tolofsky, secretary-treasurer. The increase is retroactive to December 3.

Confirmation of the announcement on the part of the local manufacturers could not be obtained this morning. At the office of the Manhattan Shirt Co., it was stated that Wilbur J. Mohr, manager, was out of town for the day. Thomas Purdy, manager for Jacobson & Sons, said that he had not received any word regarding the agreement and that in any case a statement would have to come from the New York office of the concern.

Other Benefits

According to the announcement, in addition to the raise in pay, the agreement calls for: Six paid holidays a year; $500 death benefit; sick and accident benefits of $5 and $12, up to 13 weeks in any one year; hospital benefits of $3 a day for 31 days in addition to $15 for expenses.

Among other manufacturers named as being affected by the agreement are Chubb & Peabody of Troy, S. Liebowitz & Sons, Shirts of Troy, Wilson Bros., Nierenberg & Sons, the Shirt Institute and a group of shirt manufacturers in Philadelphia.

The Kingston Local of the Amalgamated was represented at the conference by Frank McMahon, president and Thomas Murray, treasurer.

Shutdown Is Voted

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 10 (AP)—Members of the Western Electric Employees Association voted yesterday to start a slowdown beginning today in 21 Western Electric plants in north Jersey and New York, and to stop working overtime in moves to enforce their demands for a 30 per cent wage increase. At the same time the independent Union's members authorized the executive board to call a strike whenever necessary. The slowdown was voted for previously in a National Labor Relations Board election. The association has rejected a company counter-proposal offering a 15 per cent increase.

Douglas Will Use XB-42 Features in Commercial Plane

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—A commercial version of the experimental bomber which raced across the country in a record five hours and 17 minutes will be flying soon but at considerably lower speeds. The Douglas Aircraft Company which turned out the XB-42 expects to have its DC-8 transport in production next year. Instead of speed alone, however, the propeller-driven civilian model will stress a combination of economic operation and convenience.

The XB-42 averaged 432 miles an hour on its 2,295-mile non-stop flight from Long Beach, Calif., to Bolling Field Army Air Base here Saturday.

The top cruising speed of the DC-8, which Douglas expects to replace the widely known DC-3 airliner, is estimated at 270 miles an hour, about 100 miles an hour faster than the DC-3. The DC-8 will carry up to 48 passengers, compared with the DC-3's standard load of 21.

Operating cost of the DC-8 per passenger mile is expected to be about one-half that of the older plane.

The forthcoming transport will have a wingspan of 110 feet and length of 78 feet.

The XB-42 derives much of its performance from an unusual design which places the dual rotation propellers at the tip of the tail and has the engines inside the fuselage, thus reducing air resistance to a minimum.

Its flight across the country was made at an altitude of 25,000 feet with consistently favorable tailwinds of from 25 to 60 miles an hour. The fastest previous flight from the west coast to Washington was six hours, three minutes in a Boeing C-97 transport based on the B-29 Superfortress design.

Aged Woman Dies Of Gas Inhalation; Found in Chair

Miss Elizabeth Jamieson Never Regained Her Senses; Resided Alone

Miss Elizabeth Jamieson, 76, of 13 Russell street, died this morning in the Kingston Hospital from the effects of inhaling gas escaping from an open jet on the gas range in her apartment on Saturday morning. She was found unconscious by Mrs. Vincent P. Curtin of 104 West Pierpont street, who, according to the police report, entered the room when she had not seen the aged woman up and around the house.

Mrs. Curtin when she attempted to enter the Jamieson apartment found the doors locked, and was forced to obtain entrance through a window. She promptly called the police when she found Miss Jamieson apparently dead.

Officer Wesley Cramer, who investigated the accident, reported that it was evident that Miss Jamieson had turned on the gas jet and forgotten to light it. She then left the kitchen and went into an adjoining room where she was later found, sitting in a chair.

The fire department and the emergency crew of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. used the pulmotor in reviving Miss Jamieson sufficiently to have her removed to the hospital where she never regained consciousness.

Miss Jamieson had been a resident of Kingston for a number of years. She resided alone in her Russell street apartment. For years she was an active member of the Roundout Presbyterian Church, and for a long period of time she taught a class in the Sunday school.

Price Controls Removed

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—D.D.T. is appearing on the market in so many different forms and solutions that O.P.A. is taking price controls off most types. Announcing this today, the agency said that in addition to difficulties involved in trying to set equitable ceilings, it expects the incentives to come down in price. The action is effective December 15.

Patton Is Paralyzed, Wife Rushes to German Hospital

Mannheim, Dec. 10 (AP)—Gen. George S. Patton lay partially paralyzed today in Heidelberg Hospital as prominent nerve specialists were summoned from England and the United States to treat spinal injuries which he received in an automobile accident yesterday.

An Army medical bulletin said that Patton's general condition was satisfactory, that he was completely rational and had spent a comfortable night but declined to discuss the probable cause of a paralysis of the lower limbs resulting from a simple fracture of the third cervical vertebrae.

According to his side by side Atlantic plane were his wife and a neuro-surgery specialist, Col. R. G. Spaulding of Louisville, Ky. Already at the hospital are Maj. Gen. A. W. Klemm, theatre surgeon, and Prof. Hugh Cramm, a British specialist who had been flown from Oxford at the request of Mrs. Patton.

Mrs. Patton was expected to arrive in Paris tomorrow morning and go from there to Heidelberg either by rail or air.

An official Army bulletin issued at the hospital said the fiery general had passed a restful night, sleeping five hours.

The accident occurred when an Army truck reportedly turned off a side road into the Autobahn (Super Highway) and crashed into Patton's sedan. Patton and his gold of staff, Maj. Gen. Robert R. Gay, had left U. S. 15th Army Headquarters at Bad Nauheim yesterday morning to go pheasant hunting near Mannheim. Gay and the driver, P.F.C. Horace Woodring, were unhurt.

A combat engineering unit commanded by Maj. Charles Tucker of New Hamburg, N. Y., was summoned by an unidentified Red Cross girl and found Patton slumped in the rear seat of his sedan. An eye-witness said Patton's face was covered with blood from cuts suffered when he was thrown forward by the impact of the crash. Patton was reported to have said that, though his neck hurt, he felt no other injury.

Capt. Ned Snyder of Texas treated Patton at the scene of the accident, after which the engineering unit's ambulance rushed him 20 miles to the hospital in 25 minutes.

The fiery Patton, who reached his 60th birthday last month, has been commanding the 15th Army since October 4 when he was relieved of his command of the famous 3rd Army, which he led from Normandy to Czechoslovakia. He previously had won fame in North Africa and Sicily. The 15th has been a "paper" army, primarily concerned with preparing reports on lessons of the war.

Patton has indicated that the command of the 15th Army was not the sort of military job he liked, and it is believed that he planned to retire at the end of his present assignment, sometime within the next few months.

Half Million Need Homes in State, Survey Indicates

No Estimate Is Obtainable on Specific Needs; Saratoga Cites 'Buck Passing'

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 10 (AP)—New York state needs homes for about 150,000 families—and possibly two or three times that number—to relieve its housing shortage, an Associated Press survey indicated today.

This means, the poll showed, housing for at least a half million persons—the equivalent of the combined populations of Elmira, Jamestown, Oswego, Olean, Ithaca, Amsterdam, Auburn, Binghamton, Geneva, Glens Falls, Groverville, Poughkeepsie, Plattsburgh and Rome.

These conclusions were based on reports from the state's principal cities and larger villages.

Although a severe housing shortage has prevailed in many areas of the state for more than two years and Governor Dewey had created a state division of housing in July, 1944, no estimate is obtainable from state or federal authorities on specific needs.

State Housing Commissioner Herman T. Stiehm, asked for an estimate of winter housing needs, said no general program had been formulated to combat the situation, but that the state was seeking to utilize surplus wartime buildings throughout New York.

Stiehm, appointed to his $12,000 a year post July 7, 1944, expects the U. S. government to give the state $50,000,000 worth of surplus structures—army, navy, and industrial—for use in an emergency program. The state will add another $5,000,000 to make the structures into "temporary" housing units, he said.

Under Dewey's leadership, the state has begun steps to take over armed service installations in the New York city region to provide quarters for an estimated 10,000 persons.

Privately-backed construction barely has started. Contractors and building supply firms say they are held back by shortage of materials. They also complain of a scarcity of skilled builders and of governmental price restrictions.

Those are some of the reasons why Governor Dewey, predicting that a million veterans would return to New York in the next 12 months, recently estimated the housing squeeze would last five years.

The Associated Press survey covered a large cross-section of the state's communities, from villages as small as Webster, N. Y. (population about 1,700) to New York city (population about 7,500,000).

Japanese Farmers Warn Rice Riots Are Inevitable

At Same Time MacArthur Demands Jap Feudal System Change at Once

Tokyo, Dec. 10 (AP)—A warning from influential farmers that rice riots are inevitable without strong government agrarian policies coincided today with General MacArthur's second blunt demand that Japan's feudal land system be altered immediately.

Fifteen farmer representatives from Akita Province in northeastern Japan declared muddled government policies have produced such lack of confidence that the rich Tohoku district may sell only 60 per cent of its rice crop to the government.

Meanwhile, continuing his round-up of war criminal suspects, MacArthur directed the arrest of 57 Japanese accused of committing atrocities against United Nations nationals held in the ill-fated Cabanatuan Prison Camp in the Philippines, in prisons, camps and hospitals in Japan proper, and on the prisoner-of-war ship Oryoku Maru during the vessel's nightmarish voyage from the Philippines to Japan.

Also ordered arrested were three Japanese naval officers, including a repatriate from Wake Island. Two of the trio are being court-martialed by the Japanese.

The newest war criminal suspects were considered "small fry" in comparison with some of the Japanese arrested recently, but to American and Allied prisoners of war they rank highest.

Included was Lt. Col. Banzo Mori, who commanded the Cabanatuan Prison Camp from 1942 to 1944, and Col. Genosuke Nomura, who directed Japanese gunners in Hongkong from December 1942 to February 1945.

Also named were 2nd Lt. Toshino and a civilian interpreter known only as Wada, both were aboard the Oryoku Maru between December 1944 and January 1945, when they were accused of atrocities.

Three Japs Surrender

Three Japanese named on previous war criminal suspect lists surrendered today at Sugamo Prison. They were Gen. Jinzaburo Mazaki, once inspector general of military education; Nagakage Okabe, who was education minister in the cabinet of ex-premier Hideki Tojo and Kichiro Ishigara, businessman.

The measure threatens a new crisis for Premier Kijuro Shidehara's cabinet, which is on the verge of collapse. MacArthur's first demand last month for agrarian reform resulted in a lukewarm government measure now before a hesitant Diet. Today's directive cracks the whip for prompt action on a reform which the landowners are opposing strongly.

The farmer's warning of rice riots followed meeting with Prince Higashi-Kuni, former premier, in which they asked that the emperor be invited to visit Tohoku prefecture to "dispel the mental confusion now existing among agricultural communities." They said only an imperial visit would enable farmers to regain their "confidence and stability."

Flash Fire Provides Firemen With Battle Saturday Noon

Fire which started in the grill of the Nokes store on Wall street shortly before 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon gave firemen a brief but anxious battle and provided the Christmas shoppers with a thrill as several pieces of fire apparatus dashed up the street in response to an alarm which had first been sent to Wall Street House Company. Chief Murphy on arrival took no chances and immediately sent in for more apparatus and had lines of hose stretched as a precaution, through the W. T. Grant Store to the rear of the Nokes property.

The lunchette was filled with a sudden flash of fire at the grill and flames shot up the back of the partition near the grill and ignited the timber and spread out

General Patton Was Considered Best Field Commander; American Army Was Underestimated by Germans

(In this exclusive interview Maj. Gen. Erwin Lahousen gives the German intelligence estimate of the American Army's fighting ability and tells how the German Army rated American generals. Lahousen, a star witness at the International Military Tribunal, was formerly chief of staff in the German Intelligence Service and was one of the right hand men of Admiral Walter Canaris, German Intelligence genius.)

By GEORGE TUCKER
(Copyright, 1945, by The Associated Press)

Niurnberg, Dec. 10 (AP)—German army intelligence officers regarded Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a "great military leader," above even German generals, because of his skillful military planning and his ability to "over-ride feelings and objections on political grounds in the interest of achieving the one thing that was important—the successful accomplishment of military operations."

The author of that statement is Maj. Erwin Lahousen, star prosecution witness and German army intelligence chief who evaluated the fighting qualities of various Allied armies from the German viewpoint in an exclusive interview with the Associated Press.

General George S. Patton Jr. was looked upon as the best and most feared of the American field commanders by the Germans, Lahousen said.

The German Army "underestimated" the American Army at the start of the war, looking upon American soldiers as "well-fed football players," the German general said, but soon learned its error. He said that at the end of the war there was little difference from a German viewpoint, in the American, British or Russian Armies, but only in the war the Russians were better at exploiting break throughs and more daring in leadership compared with the British-American combination.

"In a tactical or dash sense in military operations, Patton was no doubt the outstanding American general," Lahousen continued.

"In order to be perfectly clear, I mean that Patton was outstanding as a leader of troops in the field. He had the necessary military and tactical ability to carry out operations that had been planned and prepared by Eisenhower, who was the great planner and who had the necessary political insight to carry out those plans, in contrast to the German generals who were experts on the battlefield but who would have been as helpless as children had they faced a similar situation."

To Re-Open Office

Saul Ritchie, Kingston physician has just been released by the Army. Colonel Ritchie entered the service August 18, 1942, first served as assistant chief of the orthopedic section at the Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C. In June, 1943, was assigned as chief of the orthopedic section at the Foster General Hospital in Jackson, Miss. In this capacity he served until his release. Dr. Ritchie plans to open his offices for the practice of orthopedic surgery, December 17, at 25 Main street.

Civilians Returned From America Decried Way They Have to Live

By DUANE HENNESSY

Uraga, Japan, Dec. 10 (AP)—In the stench-ridden halls of the filthy barracks in which Japanese civilians returning from the United States are housed, one of those who renounced his American citizenship hurried over and said: "This place is terrible! Why can't the American Army disinfest these buildings? Why didn't they do it before we arrived?"

"It's tough, brother, but the American Army has nothing to do with this place. You are under the Japanese government now," he told him. "They are running this place. These are the buildings they picked for you."

He said his name was Robert

Leadership Lacking

In evaluating the merits of the various armies, Lahousen, who handled or saw all German intelligence records, had this to say: "Before the war, the opinion among the German Army staff was that America was an extremely rich country, which had at its disposal all the resources needed to wage war, but that they would not be able to give war the leadership necessary to make proper use of all these resources. This opinion was based more than anything else on the impression that we had received about the American Army during the last war. And it was inaccurate."

"When I speak of Russian leadership the same thing applies again—that it had undergone a complete change since the last World War."

"In a purely military sense, toward the end of the war all the Allied Armies became very equal." Turning to the efficiency of the various counter intelligence services

Secretary Says Federal Officials Have Power to Seize Plants, but Won't Do It

Profit Is Key

U. S. Could Settle Upset, Lewis Says, by Giving Profit Concession

Detroit, Dec. 10 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, declaring the government has the power to seize the struck plants of General Motors Corp. but would not exercise it, called on both sides today to settle their dispute "as soon as possible."

The Secretary told a press conference that it was "extremely important" to the "economic life" of the nation that an early settlement be achieved in the walkout which has idled 213,000 General Motors workers since November 21.

Schwellenbach, in Detroit for a speech tonight, included in his comments on the C.I.O. United Auto Workers strike at G.M. a defense of President Truman's legislative proposals to help labor peace in general.

Asserting there was no desire on the part of the President to "destroy" labor unions, Schwellenbach defended his chief against the attack on Mr. Truman by C.I.O. President Philip Murray. The Secretary pointed to Mr. Truman's long record of friendship for labor.

Schwellenbach said "It is extremely important that some settlement be reached in the General Motors strike. Strikes always end as soon as possible because the automotive industry is one of the most important in our economic life."

"Both parties," he said, "must realize that the sooner this one ends the better off everyone will be."

On the subject of government seizure under the wartime emergency laws still existing, Schwellenbach said "there is the power but it won't be exercised. The power of seizure should be used most sparingly and in the past it has been used only when absolutely necessary."

Lewis Delivers Blast

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—John L. Lewis delivered a triple blast today against the government, the General Motors Company and the C.I.O.-United Automobile Workers in connection with the current automobile strike.

The United Mine Workers chief told the House Labor Committee that the government could settle the strike in 10 days if it would allow the manufacturers a price which would permit a fair profit. He termed the company's position in the dispute "dishonest" and characterized the U.A.W.'s explanation of its strike as "stupid."

Lewis voiced his criticism while testifying against legislation proposed by President Truman to set up fact-finding boards to recommend solution of major industrial disputes.

He referred to the President's proposal as an "evil, vile-smelling mess x x x full of dozens of loopholes that would make it unworkable," and said it was designed only to "appease and protect a few millionaires who find themselves frightened by the growing strength of labor."

Then turning to the General Motors strike, he declared: "The work knows and Congress ought to know it would be settled in 10 days if the government would give to General Motors a price for cars where they can make and sell them for a fair profit."

"They are making more money now not making cars than if they were producing them full blast, because of the present tax laws."

"And the poor blundering leaders of the U. A. W. picked this time of all times to shut down General Motors, when it would make more money not operating than producing."

"The dishonesty on one side by the company is equal only to the stupidity on the other side for that labor organization."

"I hope Congress won't equal that stupidity by enacting this proposed legislation for fact-finding boards."

"I don't think Congress wants to bring about the tunnel that this bill would produce."

"If you take away my liberty, I fight you. I care not who you are. I say that for myself and I say that for labor."

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—Dillard B. Lasser of Atlanta, Ga., today was appointed administrator of the Farm Security Administration by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson. He succeeds Frank Harwood, former North Carolina congressman, resigned.

Ellenville, Kerhonkson Close Schools; Influenza Reported

An outbreak of a mild form of influenza, centering around Ellenville and Kerhonkson, has resulted in school authorities closing the schools in both villages this week.

Dr. John Wells, health physician for the town of Wawarsing, said this morning that the disease is of a mild form and is affecting mostly children of school age, between six and 16 years. So far, he said, there have been no serious complications and few cases of pneumonia following attacks of the disease. The doctor said that schools had been closed because of the large number of absentees which made it inefficient to attempt to continue school sessions as usual.

Dr. B. F. Mattison, district state health officer, commenting on the outbreak in Ellenville and Kerhonkson, said this morning that similar outbreaks had been noted in Binghamton, Ithaca and in Livingston and Jefferson counties.

In all the cases, he said, the disease was of a mild type and as a rule patients recovered within six or seven days. He, too, noted that no appreciable increase in the incidence of pneumonia had been reported as a result of the outbreak. Influenza is serious, said Dr. Mattison, because of the danger from complications. He advised that when taken with influenza the patient call a physician, go to bed and have as few visitors as possible. He said that this later was more for the protection of the patient than the visitor, because of the danger of bringing the germ into the sickroom, when the patient was in such a susceptible condition.

Hurley Declares Acheson Wrecked Policy of F.D.R.

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—Major Gen. Patrick J. Hurley today charged Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson with wrecking a policy approved by the late President Roosevelt for fighting foreign monopolies, particularly British, in Iran and the Middle East.

Hurley, former Ambassador to China, returned to the witness stand of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee immediately after Acheson had told of a meeting in his office in which participants almost came to blows over a charge made by Hurley that a young assistant of Acheson had not had military service and should be in the Army.

Acheson denied an earlier assertion by Hurley that he had wrecked American policy in Iran. Acheson said he had disagreed with some recommendations by Hurley and it was for that reason that the meeting was held in his office.

When Hurley returned to the witness stand today he said that it was time that the meeting was held but that the Acheson version of it was incorrect.

He then read into the record two letters from former Secretary of State Stettinius and one from the late President Roosevelt to prove, he said, that his proposals had been approved and were in fact American policy for Iran and the Middle East. For this, he argued that Acheson had wrecked the policy.

An official bulletin released at Frankfurt, recording Patton's condition as of 3:30 p. m. (9:30 a. m. Eastern Standard Time), used the word "critical" for the first time. The general's condition previously had been termed serious.

Japanese Complain Of Camp Stench

Tsuda, that he was born in Hawaii, had been a cook in Chicago, and had worked in Santa Ana, Calif.

"We never thought we were coming back to anything as bad as this," he complained, "this is terrible!"

The "welcome" in Japan for these repatriates who asked to be relieved of their American citizenship is indeed a harsh revelation. Once they leave their American ship, they are completely under the care of the Japanese government. Uruga camp, at the mouth of Tokyo Bay, is even off limits for Allied military personnel.

Civilians trudged for a mile up a muddy, rutted road to reach the camp—a half-dozen weatherbeaten, unpainted barracks. Windows were broken, letting a chill wind whip through the barren rooms. Rotting and untended since the Japanese Army moved out, the buildings had not been cleaned for months. There were no beds, just worn, woven straw sleeping mats. Each man was issued four dirty blankets, presumably salvaged from the Japanese Army. "At least, they could have cleaned the blankets," Tsuda said. "They even smell bad. Living here is miserable!"

"Not like Japanese relocation centers in the States?" he was asked.

"There's no comparison. I sure wish I had an American meal right now, but I guess it will be a long time before I get that kind of food again."

At least 500 of the repatriates were waiting in the mess hall, a place of unmopped floors, with pools of water here and there on the uneven cement. Each person was served one saucer of rice—a plate the size of an American coffee saucer—and one apricot, shriveled to the size of a walnut. Then they all returned to their quarters, shivering. There was no heat anywhere in the camp. That's what they came back to from America.

SCHOOL OFFICER

The youngsters all like him
He's ever a friend
A kindly teacher
For better without end.
We cheer him in the morning
At noon and at three
As whistles approach him
Where dances may be.

He never has admitted
A second or ten
It seems he has made him
For here he is
This great admiration
He'll never admit
So cheerfully he sings
In school days.

Are noble and true
For children are precious
They're yours...and they're mine.

Symphony Orchestra
Thrills Audience

A capacity audience heard the concert by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra at Kingston High School Sunday afternoon when the orchestra of 80 musicians under the direction of Reginald Stewart thrilled the assembly. The concert had been anticipated for several months by the members of Community Concerts Association and its success was evident by the applause and insistent demands for an encore at the close of the concert.

Mr. Stewart directs entirely from memory without the aid of a baton. He has complete control of his musicians having crescendo, shading and pianissimo effects with sincerity and quality of tones.

Following the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" in the original arrangement, the orchestra opened the program with the inspiring Wiener transcription of Bach's "Fugue in C Major."

The major number for the afternoon was the familiar "Symphony No. 4 in F Minor, Opus 36" by Tchaikovsky. The familiar introduction is heard by the horns and the theme is developed with the horns and cellos. The second movement is considered one of the most fascinating. Tchaikovsky ever wrote with the pizzicato of the strings. The third movement is interesting with its continued pizzicato string accompaniment and the finale builds into a crescendo climax.

After the intermission Mr. Stewart announced the melodious "Waltz Suite" from "Der Rosenkavalier" by Richard Strauss, which was played in addition to the listed program.

Two pieces were chosen from Bizet's "L'Arlesienne" Suite. The first was the minuet; and the second, adagio played as the encore to the concert, was most beautiful in its simplicity and pianissimo airs.

Pianissimo lightness was also the charm of the fairy-like "Scherzo" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn. The Grieg "Norwegian Dance No. 2" was the original of some of the music for the current Broadway show, "Song of Norway" and was perhaps the most familiar to the average person. The final number of the program was in a different tempo, the brilliant "Rakoczy March" from Berlioz' "The Damnation of Faust."

Among the important members of the orchestra was Burke, first trumpeter, familiar to the first of Kingston who has visited the Ernest Williams School of Music summer camp near Saugerties. Several women were included in the orchestra.

It is not often that Kingston is treated to a memorable program by a full symphony orchestra. In recent years there have been two others, the National Symphony, Hans Kinsler conducting, December 6, 1941; and The New York Philharmonic-Symphony, Artur Rodzinski, conducting, November 22, 1943.

The next concert in the series will be March 21 when John Sebastian, harmonica virtuoso, will be presented.

Joy Ride
Kansas City, Dec. 10 (AP)—Eleven motorcycle policemen were lined up for the 5 p. m. inspection roll-call when a disturbing roar was heard outside the police garage.

Peering outside, they hastily counted 10 motorcycles and saw the 11th machine racing down the street with a stranger aboard. Ten of the patrolmen mounted the remaining two-wheelers and, with blaring sirens, gave chase.

At 5:20 p. m. the patrolmen had caught the offender who said he "just wanted to take a ride"—and roll call was resumed with all men, and machines, accounted for.

Hot Spot
Kochler, N. M., Dec. 10 (AP)—Steve Smith, a carpenter in this coal mining community, lifted a scuttle of coal and opened his heater to bank the fire for the night.

Out of the heater flew a sparrow, unharmed. Smith opened the door and it flew away into the night.

Horse Holiday
Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—Christmas cheer is coming to old Dobbin.

On Christmas morning each of the city's 1,000 neediest nags will receive a present from the Anti-Cruelty Society—a six-pound bag of oats, bran, apples, carrots, corn and shorts. The oldest and coldest will get blankets.

Even the "underprivileged" animals' owners will be remembered—with the society's 10 commandments on the care of horses.

Any Takers?
Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—Brookfield Zoo is selling its surplus alligators.

Although the prospectus says other zoos probably will be most interested, it mentions that each "gator will make a dozen alligator bags. They are three to eight feet long. The price, $5 a foot.

Arbitration Is Accepted
New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—State Mediation Chairman Arthur S. Meyer said Saturday the Third Avenue Transit Corporation and employees had agreed to arbitration of wage-hour demands of the C.I.O. Transport Workers Union Local 100.

Meyer said that if the workers ratified the agreement at union meetings tonight and Tuesday morning, arbitration would proceed immediately under direction of Prof. Paul Hays, instructor in administrative law at Columbia University. The union local has threatened to call a strike next Tuesday that would affect some 1,250,000 patrons of bus and trolley lines in Manhattan, the Bronx and Westchester county.

Atomic Bomb Work Ends Cancer Research
Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 10 (AP)—Cancer research has been advanced one to two decades by knowledge gained in the production of the atomic bomb, Dr. Andrew H. Dowdy declared today.

The director of the Manhattan project's medical research at the University of Rochester said new developments also had made possible "significant gains" in the study of arteriosclerosis and the aging process.

The statement followed disclosure of details of the university's multi-million dollar research project organized in March, 1943, when the Manhattan Engineer District began work on the atomic bomb.

Radiation carbon-14 and hydrogen will make it possible "for the first time adequately to trace any organic compound or therapeutic agent through the animal body," Dr. Dowdy said, and also will enable the scientist to determine how body tissues use nutrient materials "to develop a state of health and well-being or a state of disease such as cancer."

"We are now in a position to attack the basic research on cancer with renewed hope and vigor," Dowdy observed.

"If the proper support is forthcoming from our federal government it is not unlikely that the next one to two decades will see many advances in the fields of medicine, physics, chemistry, biology and industry, resulting in better national health, prosperity and happiness," he declared.

Arbitration Is Accepted
New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—State Mediation Chairman Arthur S. Meyer said Saturday the Third Avenue Transit Corporation and employees had agreed to arbitration of wage-hour demands of the C.I.O. Transport Workers Union Local 100.

Meyer said that if the workers ratified the agreement at union meetings tonight and Tuesday morning, arbitration would proceed immediately under direction of Prof. Paul Hays, instructor in administrative law at Columbia University. The union local has threatened to call a strike next Tuesday that would affect some 1,250,000 patrons of bus and trolley lines in Manhattan, the Bronx and Westchester county.

Atomic Bomb Work Ends Cancer Research
Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 10 (AP)—Cancer research has been advanced one to two decades by knowledge gained in the production of the atomic bomb, Dr. Andrew H. Dowdy declared today.

The director of the Manhattan project's medical research at the University of Rochester said new developments also had made possible "significant gains" in the study of arteriosclerosis and the aging process.

The statement followed disclosure of details of the university's multi-million dollar research project organized in March, 1943, when the Manhattan Engineer District began work on the atomic bomb.

Radiation carbon-14 and hydrogen will make it possible "for the first time adequately to trace any organic compound or therapeutic agent through the animal body," Dr. Dowdy said, and also will enable the scientist to determine how body tissues use nutrient materials "to develop a state of health and well-being or a state of disease such as cancer."

"We are now in a position to attack the basic research on cancer with renewed hope and vigor," Dowdy observed.

"If the proper support is forthcoming from our federal government it is not unlikely that the next one to two decades will see many advances in the fields of medicine, physics, chemistry, biology and industry, resulting in better national health, prosperity and happiness," he declared.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Joy Ride
Kansas City, Dec. 10 (AP)—Eleven motorcycle policemen were lined up for the 5 p. m. inspection roll-call when a disturbing roar was heard outside the police garage.

Peering outside, they hastily counted 10 motorcycles and saw the 11th machine racing down the street with a stranger aboard. Ten of the patrolmen mounted the remaining two-wheelers and, with blaring sirens, gave chase.

At 5:20 p. m. the patrolmen had caught the offender who said he "just wanted to take a ride"—and roll call was resumed with all men, and machines, accounted for.

Hot Spot
Kochler, N. M., Dec. 10 (AP)—Steve Smith, a carpenter in this coal mining community, lifted a scuttle of coal and opened his heater to bank the fire for the night.

Out of the heater flew a sparrow, unharmed. Smith opened the door and it flew away into the night.

Horse Holiday
Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—Christmas cheer is coming to old Dobbin.

On Christmas morning each of the city's 1,000 neediest nags will receive a present from the Anti-Cruelty Society—a six-pound bag of oats, bran, apples, carrots, corn and shorts. The oldest and coldest will get blankets.

Even the "underprivileged" animals' owners will be remembered—with the society's 10 commandments on the care of horses.

SPEAKING OF Freedom

Here in America, the foundation of freedom is—free markets! Here, all the toil of our people flows through the marketplaces—in the form of goods and money. From the very birth of our freedom we have known that if our people are to remain free, their markets must remain free!

This was one of our strengths in the victorious struggle against nations where freedom of the marketplaces had died with every other freedom.

Of all our open and free marketplaces, none is more vital to our nation's welfare than this, the investors' marketplace, the New York Stock Exchange.

This free market serves the nation. Here, buyers and sellers, through their brokers, meet in open competition. Here, prices are arrived at in the time-honored tradition of the auction. Here, prices are determined by supply and demand—in the market at the time orders are executed. Here, prices are promptly made public—so all the world may know.

In any marketplace, the quest of gain involves some risk. Now, as always, recklessness magnifies the risk. Now, as always, recklessness, in any form, is an abuse of freedom! Now, as always, facts are the best hedge against recklessness! Now, as always, prudent buyers and sellers of securities rely upon facts!

FACTS ARE AVAILABLE. Before any company lists its securities in this investors' marketplace, that company agrees to report, regularly, basic facts concerning its operations and financial condition. Such disclosure is the essence of this Exchange's policy.

In this investors' marketplace the possibility of human error is recognized. Elaborate precautions are taken to prevent it. And it is possible to say on behalf of this institution, its Members, Member Firms and their partners, that—no other enterprise observes higher principles of business conduct.

Train Is Derailed, Ties Up Central Schedules in State

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 10 (AP)—New York Central schedules were disrupted early today because a partial derailment of the 10th Century Limited stalled the west-bound flyer here for three hours last night.

W. R. Sweet, chief dispatcher at Albany, said the Century's delay congested the entire system in the state until after 4 a. m. Trains were as much as two hours late up to that time.

The Century, due out of Albany at 8:14 p. m., was held here until 11:18 after the trucks of five cars had slipped from the rails, Sweet reported. All of the cars remained upright, and no one was hurt, he said.

The Century went on without the derailed cars and picked up replacements at Utica and Rochester, the dispatcher said. The track was cleared by 2:15 a. m., he added.

Looks Like Majors Will Try to Tie Up Chandler

Joe Wilman Is National Singles Bowling Champion

Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—There are some who say that perseverance is a virtue, in sports competition and elsewhere, and Joe Wilman, the bowling Lithuanian from suburban Berwyn, Ill., will attest that statement.

Joe has been hammering at big time bowling titles for almost 25 years, with all but one of the top singles crowns eluding him until yesterday. Then he crashed through to win the National Individual match game bowling title by slaying a total of 13,437 pins.

His only other major singles championship came in 1939 when he won the American Bowling Congress all-events crown with 2,028. He finished second in the individual match last year when Buddy Bomer of Chicago won. This time—in the fifth annual meet—Bomer was in 12th place.

Wilman won 41½ games, lost 22½ and had a Petersen-system point total of 310.12 in winning the crown from 139 of the nation's top bowlers.

In second place was Pvt. Therman Gibson of Detroit, who had a point total of 305.37 for winning 38 games and losing 26, while spilling 13,387 pins. Andy Varipapa, trick shot artist from Hempstead, L. I. N. Y., finished third with 303 points and 13,325 pins.

Victory Legion Urges Maimed Veterans to Bowl

The Bowlers Victory Legion, which distributed 75,000 copies of a football guide among war convalescents in 1946 sports hospitals and sent 25,000 oversets, today announced the gift of 50,000 copies of the American Bowling Congress Official Guide to hospitalized tanks.

A goodly portion of the 258-page book is devoted to a course on how to bowl and cites instances in which armless men, legless men and the blind have become proficient in the sport. George McDonald of San Francisco holds the record for the sightless with a game of 256 which included eight straight strikes. Mrs. Mary Jane O'Donnell of Waukegan, Ill., stricken with infantile paralysis as a girl, cured the after effects by bowling, at the behest of a doctor, and became one of the country's top-eight women leglers.

Redskins Win 17-0 Over Giants, Meet Rams for Crown

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—With their fifth eastern title tucked away, Washington's Redskins turned their eyes westward today for next Sunday's professional football championship clash with the Cleveland Rams.

Field General Sammy Baugh and his mates won the right to tackle the youthful western champions by clinching the eastern crown yesterday in a 17-0 victory over New York's Giants.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was in the capacity crowd of 34,788 spectators who saw the Redskins smother the Giants' attack and start their one-sided scoring with end Joe Aguirre's 23-yard field goal in the first period.

A 25-yard pass from Baugh to end Les Dye and a one-yard plunge by Frank Akins gave the winners two touchdowns in the second half.

Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—Major league baseball moguls who last spring elected Kentucky's A. B. (Happy) Chandler to the commissionership of baseball expect some sort of debate here this week over just what powers the late K. M. Landis' successor will wield.

A breach between the men who pay the bills and the new "czar" slowly has been developing, and at last week's minor league meeting in Columbus, O., the argument virtually reached a stage of open warfare. That argument is being carried over into the three-day meeting of the majors' meeting starting here today.

Already the major club owners seem on the way to eliminating the clause which gives Chandler the power to overrule any legislation deemed "detrimental to baseball." The minors eliminated that clause last week. The majors don't want it either. This authority was Landis' biggest stick.

However, talk around the hotel lobbies indicated Chandler and the club representatives would reach a "middle road" agreement on the scope of his authority.

Up for Action
Such questions as to whether the Pacific Coast League is to be accepted as a third big league circuit, and the number of night games to be played in the majors also are up for consideration. It appeared doubtful there would be much swapping in the ivory market.

Among player deals already rumored as in the discussion stage are those which would send Detroit's Rudy York and Cleveland's Jim Bagby to the Boston Red Sox, and another that would see Cleveland swap Jeff Heath to Washington for George Case. However, there was no comment from club officials on these reports.

Night Games
Larry McPhail, who is installing lights in Yankee Stadium, has proposed the number of night games be cut to seven for each team in the league—one night game with each visiting club. Clark Griffith of Washington, who played 41 night games last season, has agreed to cut to 33. Griffith also wants the number of Sunday doubleheaders cut in half.

Mayer's Filly Is Horse of Year in Poll of Writers

New York, Dec. 11 (AP)—Louis B. Mayer's three-year-old filly Busher continued today to run away with 1945 turf laurels when she was announced as the overwhelming choice of 140 of the nation's sports and racing writers as the best horse of the year in a poll conducted by the publication Turf and Sport Digest of Baltimore.

Winner of 10 of her 13 starts this year and now seventh among the all-time money winners with $34,035 salted away, Busher also was voted the best three-year-old filly. She was chosen the best of the two-year-old colts and geldings, Beaugay the top two-year-old filly, and Styxie the greatest among the four-year-olds and upwards, with Armed a strong second.

Henry Picard Is Winner of Miami Golf Tournament

Miami, Fla., Dec. 10 (AP)—Lanky, 39-year-old Henry Picard, who came to Florida, just to help my neuritis, today faced the painless prospect of cashing the $2,250 top prize check he carved out of the Miami Open golf tournament with a record-smashing, one-man golf show.

The veteran Cleveland, O., player shot a dazzling seven-under-par 63 on the final round yesterday to clip one stroke from the course record and wind up the tourney with a 267, five strokes in front of runner-up Harold "Jug" McSpaden.

The 72-hole total turned in by Picard equaled the Miami Open record set by Sam Snead six years ago.

He cruised home with a spectacular round highlighted by six birdies and an eagle that earned him a special $250 award for low round of the play as well as the $2,000 winner's share of the $10,000 prize money.

"I'm no longer a tournament player," Picard insisted on his arrival in Miami. "But I'm still very interested."

McSpaden, from Sanford, Me., ripped off a five-under-par 65 yesterday to capture second place and a $1,400 share of the money with a tourney total of 272. Five strokes back and in third place was amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.

Denny Shute of Akron, O., and Dick Metz of Chicago collected $875 each in tying for fourth position with 278. At 280 was Willie Goggin of White Plains.

Olympic Group Will Begin Its Plans for Games

New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—Uncle Sam's Olympic machinery will get a dusting off today following nine years of inactivity because of the war.

It is against the rules for a country to begin actual Olympic preparations more than 18 months in advance of the quadrennial games and today's session of the U. S. A. Sports Federation, formerly the Olympic Committee, will be confined to overhauling the organization so that no time will be lost.

Russian Soldier Is Soviet Heavy Champ

Moscow, Dec. 10 (AP)—Nikolai Korolev, a 28-year-old soldier from Moscow, is still the Soviet Union's heavyweight boxing champion. The 156-pound Red Army man won the crown for the fourth straight year when he outpointed Andrei Novosardov, 201, of Tiflis, Georgia, in the annual title clash Saturday night. For his victory, Korolev earned 5,000 rubles (approximately $625) while Novosardov received 3,000 rubles (approximately $375).

Catholic Teams Will Play For First Place Tuesday

An important Catholic Youth Organization game will take place Tuesday night at the municipal auditorium when St. Joseph's meets St. Mary's in a contest which will decide first place in the county basketball league. There will be two games, the junior game slated to get under way at 7:30, with the senior event coming off at about 8:30.

Both of these teams are undefeated, St. Joseph's having beaten St. Peter's and the Immaculate Conception, while St. Mary's has trounced Immaculate Conception and St. Joseph's of New Paltz. The junior and senior squads of both churches will go full blast in Tuesday's games to gain undisputed possession of first place.

St. Mary's is relying on Joe Albany and Bob Nealis to pace their senior scoring attack while the uptown parish is pinning its hopes on Bill Glaser and Knobby Bilyou. These boys have shown up favorably in contests played thus far this year and the respective

Y. M. Basketball League Will Open Schedule Tuesday

The 1945-46 Y.M.C.A. Basketball League will get under way Tuesday night with a triple-header, the first game scheduled for 7 o'clock.

Early last week the league was organized with eight teams, but another composed of discharged veterans has made application to play in the circuit and Lou Schaffer "Y" physical director is willing provided a majority of the managers agree.

This league promises to have better competition because it is composed of players over the 18-year-old limit and they have had more experience in the many phases of basketball, Schaffer thinks.

This week's schedule is as follows:

Tuesday—7 p. m., Ramblers vs. Swamp Lilies; 8 p. m., Cadets vs. Crescents; 9 p. m., Madden's Aces vs. American Legion.

Thursday—7:15 p. m., Robins vs. Perry's Buccaneers.

The new team, if taken into the league will draw a bye this week, which means that one team will be idle one week in seven.

Dancing will take place in the "Y" Youth Center, after the games on Tuesday night from 8 until 11 o'clock.

G.O.P. Will Not Help Democrats, Brownell Reports

Time Has Come, He Says, to Give Republican Candidates Full Support

Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—Anti-administration Democrats had notice today from G.O.P. National Chairman Herbert Brownell that they can't expect any help from the Republicans in the 1946 campaign.

Brownell told his colleagues of the G.O.P. National Committee in a conference that ended here Saturday night the time had come for them to put all of their weight behind their own party candidates instead of supporting Democrats in doubtful areas.

In the past, he said, there had been a tendency to back Democrats who voted with the Republicans in Congress on Major issues. But he left no doubt that the Republicans are out to win party control of at least the House, and he noted that the anti-administration Democrats never vote with the G.O.P. on any such test of strength.

Some party leaders denied, however, that this new line means the Republicans won't go along with the anti-administration Democrats in the informal, working coalition that has been effective in both Houses at times.

A Brownell adviser who didn't want to be quoted by name summed it up this way:

"We're glad to have the votes of the Democrats in Congress any time they want to go along with us, but our job is to elect Republicans so that we can have control of Congress."

Brownell is expected to name this week a subcommittee of seven members of the national group who will work with G.O.P. members of Congress toward a "developing" platform for the 1946 elections.

The national chairman told reporters that one of the great difficulties the party faces is that its 1944 platform was written in wartime and doesn't cover all of the issues of the present era.

DeGasperi Says Cabinet Complete, Has All 6 Parties

Rome, Dec. 10 (AP)—After grappling for 16 days with the problem of forming a new Italian cabinet, Premier-Designate Alcide De Gasperi announced today that he finally had completed a government consisting of representatives of all the country's six major political parties.

The new cabinet, which must be approved by Crown Prince Umberto and the Allied commission, contains only three ministers who had not previously served in the coalition government of Ferruccio Parri, whose resignation on November 24 precipitated a political crisis.

De Gasperi, a Christian Democratic Party leader, retained the portfolio of foreign minister, which he held in the Parri cabinet.

Newcomers to the government

Lockport, N. Y., Dec. 10 (AP)—New York state municipal election results last month "practically finished for all time the political ambitions" of Governor Thomas E. Dewey, declares State Democratic Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick.

A forecast of Republican victories in the 1946 Congressional elections by National G.O.P. Chairman Herbert Brownell was "political crystal bawling," he said last night at a dinner honoring Mayor-elect Fred A. Ringueberg, first Democratic mayor of Lockport in 12 years.

Fitzpatrick said Brownell had based his 1946 "bold prediction on tests of public opinion" in Illinois, Montana and New Jersey.

"Quite conveniently he passed up other tests of public opinion, those represented in recent municipal elections in New York state, particularly in his home city of New York, where public opinion practically finished for all time the political ambitions of his favored Presidential candidate, Thomas E. Dewey."

"We doubt if anyone takes Mr. Brownell's 'crystal bawling' seriously. His reputation as a prognosticator on public opinion was almost completely demolished in the 1944 Presidential elections."

The state chairman will speak tonight in Ithaca at a dinner for Mayor-elect James Connolly.

were Mario Brosi, Liberal, who was named minister of war; Epimachio Corbino, Liberal, minister of the treasury, and Ricardo Lombardi, Action Party, minister of transportation.

The post of minister of public works, scheduled to go to a member of the Liberal Party, remained temporarily unfilled.
